CLOW Family Activity

Directions: Today we celebrate the second Sunday of Easter! In today's Gospel, we hear about Jesus' followers and how they were feeling afraid and worried. They thought that what had happened to Jesus, would happen to them – because they were Jesus' followers. But, just as they were feeling afraid, Jesus came to them and stood with them – Jesus didn't come back as a ghost, but was really with them! The first word that Jesus told them was PEACE. This is something that we can trust and believe in. We know the Good News – that death doesn't have the last word, but life does. And so, this week, do one thing for someone that brings them peace!
