CLOW Gospel Overview

Today we celebrate the Fifteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time. In today's Gospel, we hear how Jesus sent out his disciples, two by two, with only the clothing they were wearing and sandals they had on their feet! What do you think it was like for the disciples to be sent out with no money and no food, but only the clothes they had on and sandals they wore? Jesus wanted his disciples to rely on the generosity of those they met. When you think of being one of Jesus' disciples, what are the things you "need" to share the Good News? Just by being you, how can you share Jesus' love and kindness with those you meet?
