CLOW Gospel Overview

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Today is a special feast day, a day that we remember Mary was taken up into heaven at the end of her life. Mary, the mother of Jesus was a special woman and she was someone who had great faith and trust in God and God's plan for us. In today's readings, we get a glimpse of just how special Mary was. And in the Gospel for today, we hear the story of how Mary went to visit her cousin, Elizabeth. In the Gospel, we also hear Mary's song of praise to God for God's mercy, love and compassion. Learn more about this special feast day by clicking (Here) for information from Loyola Press.
