CLOW Gospel Overview

Today we celebrate the Twenty-Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time. In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus tell his disciples that whoever receives someone as a child, receives him. By saying this, Jesus is telling his disciples how important children really are. No matter how old we are, what we look like, if we are rich or poor, Jesus is in all of us. And so, it is important for us to be mindful of that fact that just as we are God's children – so too is someone else. We are all important and God loves each one of us very much!
